Brockman Agency

Welcome to Brockman Insurance Agency.

Our Mission is to provide quality insurance with prompt service at affordable prices. We accomplish this by caring about your business, by knowing what insurance company to partner you with (we have access to many great insurance companies) and by giving you a quality, experienced and caring staff to take care of you.

The Brockman Insurance Agency wants to be the last insurance office you ever visit. Taking care of your every need with specialized departments including Personal, Commercial and Life & Health; the Brockman Insurance Agency does things the old fashioned way. From a live person to answer the phone to the friendly way you are greeted when you are in our office, you will know you have found a home at the Brockman Insurance Agency.

For business owners, we also offer credit card processing, bank draft/EFT processing for most any type of business including medical office, retail, gym, restaurant, hotel, contractor, mail order, mobile merchants, and many more.

As a leader in the financial services industry for twenty-one years, we can provide your business with the financial transaction capabilities you need at a cost you can afford.

Be it insurance, retirement planning, asset protection, long-term care, final expense, or business financial needs, we can meet your needs and we want to earn your business.

Sincerely,

William Brockman
President

Medical Malpractice Insurance

One of the most important practice decisions for a physician is choosing the right medical malpractice insurance policy. Without proper liability protection from a dedicated medical malpractice insurance carrier, a malpractice lawsuit could be financially devastating. It is vital to select a medical malpractice policy that meets all of your needs. By investigating your malpractice insurance options thoroughly, you can make the right decision and select a strong, reputable, and financially stable medical malpractice insurance company that protects and stand by you when you need it most.

The Brockman Insurance Agency is dedicated to providing our clients with the best line of protection by representing the most financially secure A+ rated carriers with a proven record of dedication to medical professionals and their defense when needed.

Call the Brockman Agency today and let one of our agents come to your office and show you the level of excellence and professional service and protection our firm can provide to your practice. We look forward to serving your practice with the best level of malpractice insurance.
